

GET THE WORD OUT!

Coming alongside pastors and missionaries worldwide through teaching God's word

Mary Jean Powers is called by God to come alongside pastors and missionaries as a Bible Teacher in the nations of the world. Ordained as a Teacher through the Evangel Ministerial Association, Mary Jean has ministered on 5 continents and over 30 countries, across denominational borders, and with several organizations including Mercy Ships, Teen Challenge, Global Leadership Academy, Walk Thru the Bible, Association of Christian Schools International, and YWAM. Her gift and passion for teaching the Word of God has opened doors as a seminar, retreat and conference speaker. She is founder of Get the Word Out, Inc., a faith-based, non-profit organization.

Mary Jean has over 40 years of teaching experience, both privately and in the classroom, in Christian schools, churches, and para-church organizations. As a musician, she has served local churches as a staff member to train worship teams, direct choirs, arrange, compose, record, and conduct church music.

Mary Jean lives in Colorado near her 2 married sons and 5 grandchildren.
